GOVERNOR JOSH SHAPIRO

January 10, 2026

Welcome to the 110th Pennsylvania Farm Show — a celebration of our farmers, communities, and the Commonwealth's rich agricultural heritage. We are honored to greet first-time visitors, returning friends, and all who make this event possible.

This year's theme, Growing a Nation, carries special meaning. As the birthplace of American democracy, this nation's earliest roots were planted in Pennsylvania's soil — and in the family farms that have been passed down from generation to generation that still feed and fuel our nation today. As we reflect on the upcoming celebration of America's 250th Anniversary, we are reminded that the spirit that built this country runs right through our farmlands and continues to thrive across our Commonwealth.

The Pennsylvania Farm Show is a powerful reminder of how deeply agriculture touches every corner of our state. It is more than a way of life — it is a driving force in our economy, generating $132.5 billion each year and supporting nearly 600,000 jobs. The farms, families, and innovations showcased here stand on a legacy we honor through smart investment and farmland preservation, with more than 6,600 farms and 650,000 acres safeguarded — the most of any state in the nation.

The future of Pennsylvania agriculture is also on full display here. Pennsylvania's ag industry is at the center of the Commonwealth's plan for economic growth — and we've backed up that commitment with meaningful investments that foster innovation, strengthen our core industries, expand PA Farm Bill opportunities, and preserve the farmland that roots our rural communities. We are leading the way and building the future of American agriculture here in Pennsylvania — one that welcomes new leaders, opens new doors, and honors the farmers whose work sustains us all.

As we honor America's 250 years, the Farm Show affirms that Pennsylvania's farms are woven into the very fabric of our nation. What fills these halls — the food grown in our fields, the ingenuity passed down through generations, and our enduring commitment to caring for the land — reflects the traditions that have strengthened our food system, sustained our communities, and shaped our Commonwealth from the very beginning. For us, agriculture is more than an industry — it is a promise. A promise to safeguard our heritage, nurture innovation alongside tradition, and ensure that as America marks 250 years, Pennsylvania continues to grow not only food, but opportunity, resilience, and community.

Thank you for joining us. Whether you are here to celebrate our history, explore new technologies, meet the families who feed this Commonwealth, or simply enjoy the spirit of this annual tradition, we hope the Farm Show inspires you, teaches you, and reminds you of how deeply agriculture grows both Pennsylvania — and our nation.

Welcome to the 2026 Pennsylvania Farm Show

A Message of Celebration and Community

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the Friends of the Pennsylvania Farm Show, it is my distinct pleasure to welcome you to the 2026 Pennsylvania Farm Show — an annual tradition that celebrates the heart, heritage, and hope of our state's vibrant agricultural community. For more than a century, the Farm Show has been a gathering place for families, farmers, and friends to share in the bounty of our fields, the innovation of our producers, and the proud spirit of rural Pennsylvania.

As you walk through the bustling exhibition halls, you'll experience the very best of Pennsylvania — from world-class livestock and fresh, homegrown produce to the newest technologies shaping the future of American agriculture. This year's show promises to be more exciting than ever, featuring live demonstrations, educational workshops, spirited competitions, and, of course, those beloved Farm Show milkshakes that bring everyone together. And of course, we can't forget the 250th celebration of our nation's birth. From the ancient wisdom of Indigenous stewards to the ingenuity of modern farmers, America's agricultural story is one of renewal, adaptability, and hope. The America250PA celebration invites everyone — growers and eaters alike — to recognize this legacy, cherish the land, and plant seeds for a flourishing future.

May the next 250 years be guided by the same resilience, creativity, and unity that have carried American agriculture through its first quarter-millennium. As amber waves of grain and fields of green stretch across the continent, they stand as living testaments to a nation's enduring promise — and its boundless potential.

We invite you to explore the creative achievements of our youth, meet the dedicated stewards of our land, and discover the rich tapestry of traditions that make Pennsylvania's agricultural landscape unique. Whether you are a seasoned farmer, an aspiring young grower, or simply here to enjoy the sights and flavors, there is something for everyone at the Farm Show.

Let us take this time to honor our shared heritage and look forward to a future filled with promise and opportunity. Thank you for being part of this special celebration and for supporting the people who feed, clothe, and fuel our communities.

Welcome to the 2026 Pennsylvania Farm Show — where tradition meets tomorrow.

Warmest regards,

Pennsylvania Wines

HISTORY

Pennsylvania has a long legacy of winemaking. More than 330 years ago, William Penn planted a vineyard in what is now Fairmount Park in Philadelphia.

GRAPES

Pennsylvania has 14,000 acres under vine. PA's climate allows a unique array of European and American grape varieties to grow.

WINES

The Commonwealth is fourth in the nation for wine production. There are more than 400 limited wineries that are producing an exciting diversity of local wines.

WHAT'S NEW AT THE 2026 PA FARM SHOW?

Women are producing nearly half of the world's food – that's not new. But the United Nations has designated 2026 The International Year of the Woman Farmer to highlight the crucial role of women in agriculture, address the challenges they face, and promote gender equality in the field and beyond. Throughout 2026, starting with the Farm Show, join the PA Department of Agriculture to celebrate the contributions of Pennsylvania Women who are "Growing A Nation" through agriculture. Learn about Pennsylvania women in all facets of agriculture, the challenges they face and progress they have made while innovating to give consumers what they want, integrate technology into their processes, and make their ag businesses more sustainable financially and environmentally. Hear how you can support women in increasing access to resources like land, credit, education, and technology. See page 41 for PA-centric facts and info. And Ask a PA Woman in Ag to tell you how they are Growing a Nation!

Back by popular demand after gobbling the praise in last year's debut — youth and their turkeys will strut their stuff and show off how well they've raised their birds during Turkey Showmanship. Market turkeys will be shown and included in the Jr. Market Livestock Sale that helps fund the animals the students raise in the coming year.

New in the snuggle bunny realm: Silver Tipped Steel for Netherland Dwarf, Smoke Pearl for Mini Satin, Tortoise Shell for Dwarf Papillon join the fluffy faves in the line-up of breeds.

Celebrate Pennsylvania's culinary heritage or grow the limits of your culinary imagination and knowledge at the PA Preferred® Culinary Connection Stage in Main Hall. Every day, every hour, meet an all-star line-up of celebrity chefs, kicking off on opening day with Jen Heasley, Author of The Game Day Kitchen and Host of "Cooking with the Pros" on CBS 21 and Bryan Voltaggio, American celebrity chef, restaurateur, and author, "Top Chef" television series alum, and James Beard Award semifinalist. Visit Culinary Connection to season your day with local flavors and inspiration, sample celebrity recipes prepped by future stars from an expanded line-up of six PA culinary schools, grab a cookbook, and begin your own PA farm-to-table culinary adventures!

Also new on stage this year, chefs will be paired onstage with the farmers who produced the ingredients making their menu magic happen, and experts from Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture's Bureau of Food Safety will share tips on preparing your feast safely. Check the schedule on the back cover for details.

While you're at the Culinary Connection – hop across the aisle to check out a full menu of daily classes at So, You Want To Be a Farmer? Get in the act of growing our nation's future by reducing food waste, homesteading, growing your own food or flowers for profit or fun, or just improving the soil in your hobby garden. See page 22 for details.

And just next door, visit the new PA Preferred® Market Stand for a closer look at products that proudly bear the blue and yellow checkmark telling you they are grown or produced right here at home – born in the Keystone State, just like our great nation!

In the Advanced 4-H Food- Global Gourmet Division: Cassava Cake, Grissini, and Apfel Torte join the already extensive baked bonanza of delights.

Also debuting on the menu front in 2026, a PA Spirits Competition joins fan-favorite cheese, wine, cider, and beer competitions in the Farm Show made-in-PA line-up. In its first year, the contest will be an exhibition, with awards, and with sampling and sales in the next two years. Find out what distillery's finest will win the first year's bragging rights and enhance a menu near you in 2026!

And try the latest innovation and internet sensation growing in the Mushroom Capitol of the World – sip some Mushroom Coffee from the Mushroom Farmers of PA in the Food Court.

Throughout the show, Pennsylvania's proud history and prosperous future will be demonstrated on stage and in the showing with special competitions highlighting the coming year's America-250PA celebrations. Patriotic crafts and historical displays ranging from edible art with pies, pickles, nuts, and veggies; to floral displays; red, white, and blue wreaths, quilted masterpieces; and even heritage swine breeds — take a tour of who we are as Pennsylvanians, what we have done and what we are poised to do in the next 250 years. Be sure to congratulate the next class of Bicentennial and Century Farm Families who have passed down their farms through the family for a century or two and applaud the Leopold Conservation Awardees who are models of conservation that will preserve farms and improve our water and soil in the coming century.

Stop by the America250PA booth in GIANT Expo Hall to meet featured PA iconic food brands who are Growing A Nation and feeding our economic future.

2026 PENNSYLVANIA FARM SHOW

GROWING A NATION

The 2026 Farm Show theme was revealed at Wyck House in Philadelphia. Those in attendance to celebrate included (left to right) Heidi Svonavec, executive director of the PA Farm Show; Kim Staub, executive director, Wyck House, Farm, and Garden; Senator Art Haywood; Secretary Russell Redding; Betsy Ross; Cassandra Coleman, executive director of America250PA; Ava Immel, PA State Fair Queen; and Andrea Lowery, executive director of PA Historical and Museum Commission.

The 110th Pennsylvania Farm Show theme “Growing A Nation” reflects the deep-rooted connection between agriculture and American identity — past, present, and future. As the nation commemorates its 250th anniversary in 2026, the theme honors the role that the Commonwealth and Pennsylvania’s farmers, agricultural innovators, and land stewards have played in shaping our country. From the fields that fed a revolution to the farms that now fuel local economies and sustainable futures, agriculture has always been at the heart of our national story.

This theme is more than a historical reflection

— it’s a call to action. It speaks to the resilience of farmers, the innovation of the agriculture industry, and the power of food and farming to connect communities, preserve heritage, and cultivate the next generation. No matter what zip code, the work being done on farms across Pennsylvania continues to grow the values, economy, and promise of our nation.

Join as the Pennsylvania’s State Fair brings this theme to life through exhibits, education, and celebration, showcasing the people, products, and progress that make agriculture essential to both Pennsylvania and the nation.

"Why do sheep need haircuts?"

"Will goats really eat anything?"

"What does horsepower have to do with horses?"

Kids ask a lot of questions.

SUPER SMART FARM SHOW,

Lancaster Farming's podcast for kids, has a lot of answers.

Join us each week as we explore kid-friendly topics like why cows have four-compartment stomachs, bees are important and why sheep need haircuts.

We here at the Super Smart Farm Show know it's fun to ask questions and wonder about the world we live in, especially when it comes to learning about how farmers feed and take care of us.

You can find Super Smart Farm Show on Spotify, Apple Podcasts, or wherever you find your favorite podcasts. Or you can listen at Lancasterfarming.com

2026 MILITARY VETERANS & FAMILIES DAY

THURSDAY, JANUARY 15

Military personnel protect and defend our freedoms. Veteran-farmers are growing our nation with skills honed while serving our country.

On Thursday, January 15, PA Farm Show honors military veterans and families for their service. The popular Army-Navy Cookoff anchors the day, starring military chefs battling it out for culinary supremacy on the PA Preferred® Culinary Connection stage at 1:00 p.m. Chefs from all service branches and farmer-veterans are featured all day.

Veterans and active duty military – show your military ID for these special offers.*

PENNSYLVANIA FFA ASSOCIATION

The FFA State Officer team is elected each year at their annual convention in June. A committee of their peers interviews and selects seven individuals to serve a one-year term. Each officer spends a gap year traveling the state as agriculture ambassadors, promoting agriculture, agriculture education and the FFA.

The FFA promotes premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agriculture education. FFA doesn't exist without the agriculture education classroom across the United States. Located in all 50 states, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, the national organization now has over 1,027,273 members in 9,235 local chapters. In Pennsylvania, 16,070 members are located in 164 chapters.

This talented group of young people represents a slice of the diversity and breadth of Pennsylvania's agriculture industry. We are Pennsylvania proud of the team and all FFA members across the commonwealth.

PENNSYLVANIA 4-H: CONNECTING OUR COMMUNITIES

4-H'ers build their confidence through leadership roles, including membership on the Pennsylvania 4-H State Council. Our young leaders interact with community and government leaders and represent 4-H, their communities, and our state at meetings and events.

Start exploring today and see how 4-H can unlock your potential!

PENNSYLVANIA FAIRS

Visit a PA Fair to Meet the Pennsylvanians Growing Our Nation in Your Hometown

Every New Year in Pennsylvania kicks off with the PA Farm Show — Pennsylvania's State Fair®. On stages and in show rings, the best of Pennsylvania's 108 fairs shine in the spotlight, alongside the people who make us proud of who we are and where we live.

From prize-winning German chocolate, gigantic gourds, and gorgeous Guernseys, to guitars on the grandstand, PA fairs showcase Pennsylvania's rich agricultural heritage and the people who are growing its bright, secure future by restoring our land and water resources, and feeding our families and our economy.

Plan your 2026 Pennsylvania Fair adventures at pafairs.org.

Pennsylvania is Growing — and Leading — Our Nation

PA Agriculture feeds $132.5 billion into our economy annually and supports nearly 600,000 jobs. With more than 48,800 farms covering 7.10 million acres, PA farmers use land resources efficiently, earning 2.7 times more per acre than farms nationwide. Innovative PA farms are leading the way with renewable energy, precision agriculture, and tourism.

PA Ranks:

- 1 % of farmers under 35, number of preserved farms, agaricus mushrooms; organic livestock, poultry & mushrooms; hardwood lumber production & exports
- 2 butter, calves, gallons of craft beer, floriculture producers, direct-to-consumer sales, trout sales
- 3 organic sales, ice cream mixes, Swiss cheese
- 4 apples, eggs, Italian cheese, peaches, poultry layers, sour cream, wine & grapes
- 5 hogs, milk goats, oats, and acres of Christmas trees

Pennsylvania Farmers are always #1 in our hearts!

CHILDREN'S BOOK

"F Is for Farm Show"

This year, take your time, enjoy the Pennsylvania Farm Show in rhyme!

Pennsylvania Farm Show Foundation Historian Mary Klaus annually writes a Farm Show children's story. This year's tale, called "F Is for Farm Show," takes an alphabetical and rhyming look at the event.

The story begins on the ABC Farm, where an alphabet-loving family produces everything from apples to zucchini. Farmers Anna and Zachary even named their children Amy, Bryce and Charlotte after the first three letters of the alphabet.

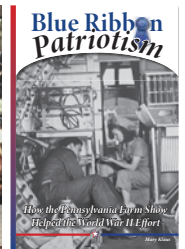

So, when the family visits the Farm Show, it seems only natural to take an A to Z look at it — and to do it in rhyme.

Christina D. Walker illustrated the book, which was sponsored by the Friends of the Pennsylvania Farm Show Foundation. Rachel Schlegel designed it.

Check the schedule for story times with Mary. The story will be available free to families to take home after each reading.

The Friends of the Pennsylvania Farm Show booth in the GIANT Expo Hall also will have copies along with the Farm Show history book Klaus has written, "Hold Your Horses! The Pennsylvania Farm Show at 100" and "Blue Ribbon Patriotism: How the Pennsylvania Farm Show Helped the World War II Effort."

PA WOMEN IN AG ARE GROWING A NATION

HERE'S HOW:

35% of all PA agriculture producers are women.

Of those 31,135 women:

- ★ 1,282 are hired managers
- ★ 26,156 are operators who live on the farm
- ★ 4,227 are under 35 and we're #1 in the U.S. in young ag producers
- ★ 24,906 are involved in day-to-day management decisions (80%)

2 / 3 of the PSU College of Agricultural Sciences students are women.

Women more often farm SMALLER PARCELS, PUBLIC LAND, or land held by conservation organizations or protected by ag easements.

Across the United States, counties with more women-owned or operated farms have LONGER LIFE EXPECTANCIES, LOWER POVERTY RATES, and MORE ENTREPRENEURS.

More PA and U.S. women are in Ag now THAN EVER!

According to the U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization, women produce MORE THAN 50% of food grown in the world. In some parts of the world it's 80%.

PA PREFERRED® FOOD COURT

The PA Preferred® Food Court is one of the show's most popular highlights, filled with taste-tempting treats featuring PA-made and PA-grown products.

Operating the food court successfully requires an estimated 2,000 volunteers. Sales generate significant revenue to support small local businesses and Pennsylvania farmers, as well as research, programming, and youth scholarships. Supporting organizations invest their time, money, and passion for agriculture in serving hungry Farm Show crowds with a smile.

Credit card and cash will be accepted at all food vendor locations.

2025 INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF FAIRS AND EXPOSITIONS

The Pennsylvania Farm Show earned recognition from the International Association of Fairs and Expositions (IAFE), for its excellence among agricultural events worldwide.

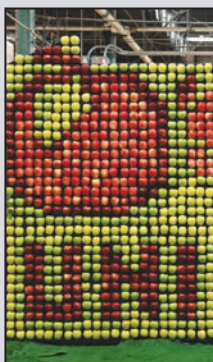

The IAFE awards honor fairs that demonstrate outstanding achievement in areas such as education, innovation, and community impact. The PA Farm Show, the largest indoor agricultural event in the United States, brings together farmers, producers, youth organizations like 4-H and FFA, agribusinesses, and local communities. These awards underscore the show's role in promoting agriculture, supporting rural economies, and educating the public about food systems and farming traditions.

Other Agricultural • First Place

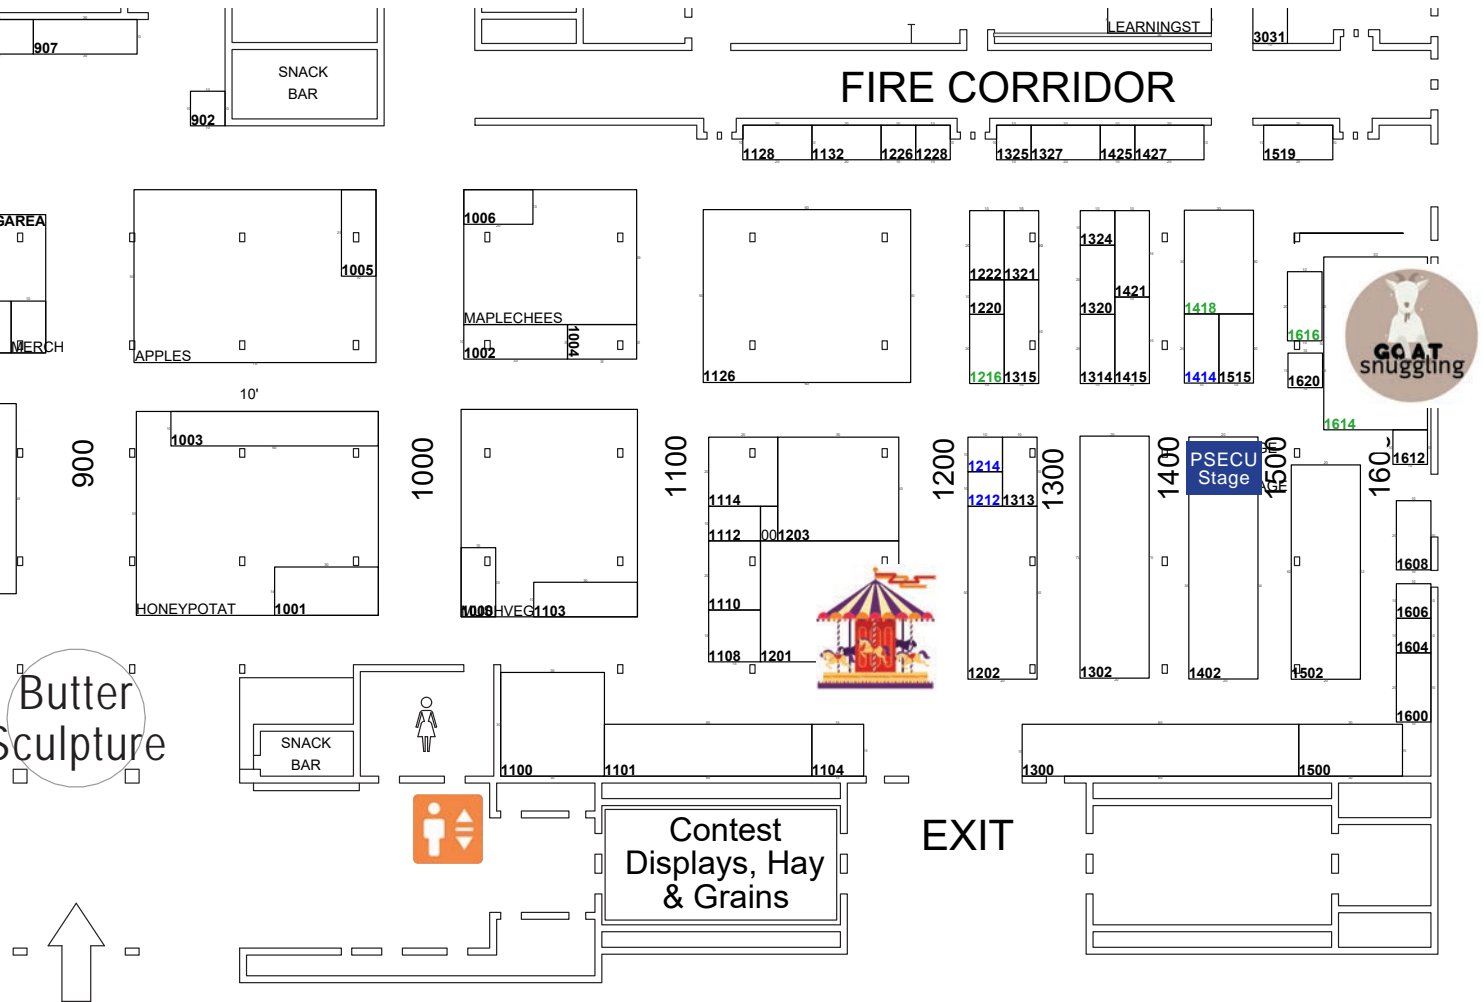

After months of dedication, hard work and countless hours in the barn, this powerful moment at the 2025 PA Farm Show captures the heart of livestock showmanship. The banner showcases the passion, dedication, and hard work of the Supreme Champion.

Ready for tomorrow, today.

Cordia is dedicated to empowering Harrisburg with reliable, efficient, and sustainable energy.

As Harrisburg's provider of choice for heating and cooling, we've supported the Business District and the Capitol Complex for years, and we're excited to continue that commitment into the future. As industry leaders in district energy, combined heat and power (CHP), and microgrids, we're driving a resilient, sustainable energy future right here in Harrisburg. Together, let's shape a future full of energy.

Stories in Stone: Discover the Artifact in the Cameron Street Lobby

Contractors removing crumbling original panels above arena entrance.

The Large Arena, built in 1938 for $1,250,000 and opened for the 23rd Farm Show which, reportedly drew an estimated 110,000 visitors — though attendance figures from the 1930s and early 1940s were often inflated.

Its roof is supported by eight two-hinged, rigid steel frames constructed by Bethlehem Steel. Then considered the largest of their kind in the world, each spanned 235 feet. Bethlehem Steel's logo is still visible from the third floor concourse.

Comparable in size to Madison Square Garden in New York, the arena has seen many decades of wear. Original exterior frieze panels recently crumbled, however a surviving panel which was replaced in the 1980s will be displayed at the Farm Show.

A new panel ready to be placed.

2026 FARM SHOW JUNIOR COMMITTEE

The 2026 Jr. Committee is fired up for their supporting roles helping make the Pennsylvania Farm Show an exciting and enriching event for everyone! Seasoned veteran, or new to the committee, without exception, every member is excited to see old friends and make new ones among the amazing Pennsylvanians who are growing our nation through Pennsylvania agriculture.

Jr. Committee members were thrilled at opportunities to make connections that will feed their futures in agriculture, as they get behind-the-scenes, hands-on experience learning not just what it takes to make Farm Show a success, but what it takes to run an agriculture business.

Each committee member took a tour in 2025, visiting a diverse array of locations and leaders across Pennsylvania. They will present their findings, alongside their new connections, onstage to share with YOU their newfound knowledge in hopes you catch their contagious enthusiasm for Pennsylvania agriculture.

Be sure to join any or all 22 Jr. Committee members during the Farm Show, as they take a deep dive into an ag sector, a specific farm business, or an association or organization working to help Pennsylvania agriculture thrive. Find a detailed schedule here:

Here's a Preview

Hop on a horse for aspiring veterinarian Brynlee Balliet's tour of Hanover Shoe Farms, where she learned about managing a large-scale equine breeding operation. Says Brynlee, "It was incredible being able to see all the different management techniques that go into the breeding process. My favorite part was the process of embryo transplants!"

Brynlee Balliet

Lenka Ohler

Mary Walter

Lauren Smith

Hit the trees as Lenka Ohler tours Mytrysak Family Tree Farm in Indiana, PA expanding her horizons, and learning the ins and outs of the business that makes holidays bright. Mary Walter will explore one of Pennsylvania's few, but mighty chestnut farms, after touring Rick Hartlieb and family's Castanea Farms in Robesonia. And Lauren Smith, who grew her wildlife and forestry knowledge will share what she gleaned from the PA Hardwoods Development Council, "I had the privilege to see firsthand how our Pennsylvania forests are managed, harvested, processed into different products, and then used by the public."

Thank you, Junior Committee Sponsors!

2026 FARM SHOW JUNIOR COMMITTEE

Heather Inch

Find out where Ag would be without bees, as Heather Inch and Gingrich's Apiary and Emily Kerstetter and W. Fisher Bee Farm in Lewiston share the buzz on harvesting and processing honey, how to create an ideal bee habitat, and what is threatening PA bees. Says Emily, "I always thought the primary product of a bee farm is honey, but Fisher's primary product is pollination for them. Honey and bees wax are just byproducts."

Emily Kerstetter

Lindsey Kline

Chelsie Bomgardner

Garrett Kaltenbach

Lindsey Kline will get to the meat of the matter with Beaver Creek Angus in East Berlin, and the PA Beef Council. Lindsey says, "I never realized how labor-intensive beef farming is. I give a lot of credit to the beef farmers in PA!" Chelsie Bomgardner and Pennsylvania Livestock Association Past President Mike Firestine will add their beefy insights, and Garrett Kaltenbach will bring some pork to the protein on our plates, joining the PA Pork Producers Council to shed some light on the critical importance of biosecurity in hog barns.

Anna Houser

What's meat without PA potatoes? Ask Anna Houser, who joined the Pennsylvania Cooperative Potato Growers to build on her stores of knowledge gained during years competing in 4-H potato judging. Anna will reveal what she learned about how "Spud Bot" technology helps improve potato farming, and how a harvester operator sorts rocks and dirt from potatoes.

Charley Lengel Kramer will put some fruit on our plates, sharing his orchard insights on wide variety of Pennsylvania apples, and their unique qualities that serve different markets and consumer preferences. "I learned the best times to trim trees, how growers use different planting methods to stagger ripening, so harvests are spread out over time."

Charley Lengel Kramer

2026 FARM SHOW JUNIOR COMMITTEE

Brynn Karnes

For added greens and floral flair, Brynn Karnes, who owns and operates her own floral business, toured popular Farm Show exhibitor River Road Produce and Garden Center in Marietta, with Owner Wes Gerber. “The standout theme of the tour was clear: dedication is the cornerstone of success,” Brynn said. “Wes’s passion for his craft was evident as he explained how perseverance and commitment have brought his vision to life. I learned about the nuances of plant care, the importance of cultivating relationships with customers, and how staying true to one’s mission can lead to heartfelt connections in the community.”

Ashley Ocker

Rounding out the dinner plate of an educational menu is Ashley Ocker and Buona Foods’ Bella Mushroom Farms in Avondale for the lowdown on America’s favorite fungi. Besides being a fourth-generation family business, Ashley was wowed that Buona Foods is a Woman-Owned Business, officially recognized by The Women’s Business Enterprise National Council.

Frances Weaver

And what goes with everything on any menu? If you didn’t say dairy, you’re not in PA. Frances Weaver learned how Center for Dairy Excellence works to create a more sustainable dairy industry.

Frances is excited to, “connect Farm Show audiences to the hardworking families behind every glass of milk.” Emma Copenhaver and PA Dairy-men’s Association President Dave Smith will highlight what goes into promoting Pennsylvania’s nation-leading dairy industry.

Emma Copenhaver

For a different take on dairy and a popular by-product, Sophia Spang and MisFits Farm in New Oxford got the goat milk-to-soap story. “From raising goats, to collecting and preserving milk, to calculating recipes, designing packaging, and creating a sustainable soap product, it is clear of how much dedication is necessary for soap-making,” says Sophia.

“The Pennsylvania Farm Show Junior Committee is a dynamic group of young people paving the future of PA agriculture. These members gain frontline leadership by collaborating with consumers, our esteemed producers, and those who make the PA Farm Show possible.”

Lauren Kennedy

Find out what's keeping the lights on at many PA farms with Lauren Kennedy, who explored agrivoltaics, touring solar-powered systems with Pasa Sustainable Agriculture. "I had the opportunity to learn how solar panels and livestock are combined to keep the soil and land usable while producing renewable energy," said Lauren.

State Fair Queen Ava Immel and Alternate Fair Queen Brooke Beamesderfer, who visited numerous PA fairs with the PA Association of State and County Fairs, will share their take on agritourism. In Ava's words, "I learned how much dedication, planning, and community pride go into making each fair a success.

Every fair is unique, but they all share the same mission of promoting agriculture and creating opportunities for education and youth involvement through programs like 4-H and FFA. I also gained a deeper appreciation for how fairs strengthen connections between producers and the public."

2025 PA FARM SHOW SALE OF CHAMPIONS

A portion of the more than $36,858 raised at the 2025 Sale of Champions and Junior Market Livestock Sale will help fund scholarships sponsored by the Farm Show Scholarship Foundation in 2026. Many of these sales will fund purchases of new animals by youth who will raise them for hands-on educational experience through the next year. Purchasers of other animals will donate them to Feeding Pennsylvania, directly providing nutritious meals for families across Pennsylvania.

2025 PA FARM SHOW FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

The PA Farm Show Scholarship Foundation awarded 24 college students with scholarships supported by funds raised from the 2024 PA Farm Show. Winners received $5,000 from the Pennsylvania Farm Show Scholarship Foundation and an additional $1,000 from the MacCauley Foundation. The scholarships aide students with career training in agricultural fields from textile science to agronomy to veterinary medicine.

Scholarship Recipients are Growing A Nation

Addison (Neff) Ray, a 2020 Farm Show Scholarship recipient, is a 2019 graduate of Covenant Christian Academy who went on to earn her Bachelor of Science from Lancaster Bible College in 2023, completing dual majors in Biblical Studies and Early Childhood Education (PreK–4th Grade). Today, she proudly teaches first and second grade at Tyrone Christian Academy in Tyrone, PA, where she pours her passion for learning and faith into the next generation.

Her roots in agriculture run deep. Addison spent nine years as a youth exhibitor at the Pennsylvania Farm Show through Dauphin County 4-H, showing rabbits and poultry, competing in youth contests, and creating family projects that became treasured memories. She often shares that those years at the Farm Show shaped her work ethic, confidence, and love for hands-on learning.

Addison was honored to receive a scholarship from the Pennsylvania Farm Show Scholarship Foundation, a program that has had a meaningful impact on her family. She and both of her sisters have been recipients. The scholarship eased the financial burden of college and helped make her educational path possible.

Grateful for the support and proud of her agricultural roots, Addison carries the lessons learned at the Farm Show into her classroom each day, continuing the tradition of growth, leadership, and community that defines Pennsylvania agriculture.

BUY BACK

Ever thought about bringing home the bacon? The Farm Show Junior Livestock Sale provides the opportunity to take home meat raised right here in the Keystone State.

4-H and FFA members work hard for a year or more, to prepare to show their market livestock over the three days at the beginning of the PA Farm Show. Their work purchasing, raising, training, clipping, and showing their market animals has all led to the minute they bring their animal to the auction block at the sale on Tuesday, Aug. 13 at 9:30 a.m. in the Small Arena. Bidders support these youth, who then invest the money in their education or their herds and flocks.

Why buy an animal at the Junior Livestock Sale?

- Cheaper than purchasing meat at the store.
- Knowing where your food comes from and who raised it.
- Supporting the next generation of agriculturalists and agriculture promoters.

Before you seek the winning bid:

Do you have enough freezer space?

(Here's how much meat to expect!)

- Steer: 450-500 pounds of beef
- Hog: 120-150 pounds of pork (bacon, sausage, ham)
- Sheep: 40-55 pounds of lamb
- Goat: 35 pounds of meat
- Rabbit (sold by pen): 3-4 pounds each

Do you have a preferred butcher shop?

- If so, let them know you'd like them to handle harvesting and fabrication of an animal you hope to purchase at the Farm Show. If not, contact your county Penn State Extension office for help locating a shop. If you are purchasing a hog: all hogs must go directly to harvest with pre-approval of trucking and harvest facilities.
- If you don't have a livestock trailer, your butcher shop, or the exhibitor you plan to purchase from, may be able to help you find a hauler.

Contact the PA Farm Show's Competitive Event Office at 717-787-2905 for info.

GROWING A NATION

WITH PENNSYLVANIA HARDWOODS

AMERICA'S ROOTS

In the 1800s, materials from Pennsylvania's forests industrialized the nation. Wood from our forests built wagons, ships, railroad ties, towns, factories and more.

LEADING THE NATION

Today, through sustainable management, our forests are growing over twice the harvest rate.

Pennsylvania leads the nation in hardwood growing stock and the production and export of hardwood lumber.

WORKING FORESTS WORK

The state's working forests provide a renewable supply of materials to produce items like furniture, cabinets, flooring, snowboards, skis, and drumsticks.

Real American Hardwood, homegrown in PA, offers many benefits.

GROWING THE FUTURE

Pennsylvania's forest product industry is poised for a bright future. Innovations such as thermally modified lumber, biochar, and mass timber are leading the way.

To learn more, visit the Pennsylvania Hardwood exhibit that features the PA WoodMobile, located in the Main Hall.
